Heaven scent

Nothing brings Father's Day unstuck faster than everyone in your family forgetting it entirely. Another way to throw the brakes on festivities is to front up smelling like, well, like a bloke. Make sure everyone remembers your day with regular reminders for gifts, and make sure that day goes great by asking for L'Essence de Cerruti, the new gold standard in men's fragrance. According to the L'Essence de Cerruti, the head notes evoke the image of an elegant white cotton shirt blowing in the breeze, the heart recalls a leather jacket and the base notes simply exude the caressing sensuality of cashmere against bare skin. With a lineup like that you can't fail to feel like He-Man, if He-Man were a cashmere kinda guy. Splash on the Eau de Parfum for RRP $125 (100ml) or RRP $95 (50ml), and the Deodorant goes for $35 (75g). Visit www.coty.com for more.

Bull up your pulling power
